FORTUNATE TURFMEN.

There was a time when George E. Smith, known to turfmen as "Pittsburg Phil," was considered the most remarkable plunger in America. But of late "Pittsburg" has been compelled to take a back seat in favor of the noted owner and bettor, David Gideon. It was only last Friday that Gideon successfully backed five out of six winners at Bennings and took, it is said, $30,000 out of the layers' satchels. In round numbers, it is estimated that Gideon's winnings this year will amount to about $180,000. Of course, he has dropped some big money during the campaign on local tracks, but his coups have netted him enough to keep the wolf away from the door for many moons to come.

Gideon has a long string of thoroughbreds. Some of them run in his own name, while others, generally reputed to be his property, run in the names of owners closely identified with him. Indeed there has been much talk among horsemen this year against this very practice, but Gideon, as well as others, has never paid serious attention to the criticism.

It was not until the autumn meeting at Sheepshead Bay that Gideon made himself felt in the betting ring. He entered his two-year-old filly Josepha in a race and so little was known of her that as high as 40 to 1 was quoted in some books. Gideon's commissioners got to work rapidly. They began by putting down small bets so as not to attract attention and then when the price fell they planked the money down so confidently that Josepha's closing price was 3 to 1. The filly simply walked home and Gideon cleaned up close to $50,000 on this victory alone. During the Gravesend meeting Gideon cleaned up $30,000 on the victory of his two-year-old colt Carrington, which ran in James McLaughlin's name and colors.

When August Belmont's Namtor won his first race at liberal odds, Gideon picked up $15,000 in bets. Another victory by Josepha netted a handsome sum. But at Aqueduct recently this same Josepha fooled Gideon more than anybody else. She was entered in a selling race and Gideon bet heavily on another starter. Josepha's odds went up rapidly to 40 to 1 in some books, which showed that Gideon was "not down," as the layers say. Josepha, however, won in a gallop while Gideon and his friends stood down near the judges' stand and muttered to themselves. These are only a few instances of big bets made by Gideon, but they serve to show that it is not often that he puts down a bet without knowing something from the inside.

Gideon is one of the most successful turfmen in America. During his career of fifteen years on the turf, it is estimated that he has won in stakes, purses and plunge bets all of a half a million dollars. In his time he has owned a powerful stable with his former partner, John Daly. It was His Highness, The Butterflies and Requit, who carried the colors of Gideon & Daly to victory in the rich Futurity. Ramapo, also owned by them, once captured the Suburban Handicap. Gideon is a quiet, unassuming-looking man whose phlegmatic temperament is a remarkable trait. He knows everybody at the racetrack and everybody knows him. He and Croker are intimate friends.

"Is 'Pittsburg Phil' losing his grip?" This question has been repeatedly asked of horsemen of late. That the plunger has lost much money lately there can be little doubt. "Pittsburg" admits it himself and so do the bookmakers, who have old scores to settle with the plunger. At one time last summer "Pittsburg" declared he had lost twenty-two straight bets, but this statement was generally laughed at by men who said that the veriest novice could pick them better than that. But just the same "Pittsburg" has had a hard year and has decided to go slow for a while. Another plunger who has cut a conspicuous figure this year is "Davy" Johnson, the bookmaker. Johnson has been training in with Gideon, and that has meant much to him. Johnson has made books at all the big tracks, but that has not prevented him from jumping from his stool and dashing around making heavy wagers. He has been next to many a good thing and has enjoyed heavy profits.

Take all together, the layers have had some pretty hard times. George Wheelock is a heavy winner on the year, however, his election bets on Low amounting to a small fortune. Eddie Burke, on the other hand, has been a steady loser, his friends say, but he is pegging away day in and day out to get his losses back. Burke for some time has seemed to be up against Old Hard Luck. On Thursday last he made a "swell" bet that Rahlin would defeat Jefferies, though he must have known that the champion looked a sure thing on past performances.

John E. Madden has also enjoyed a phenomenal year. In fact, he leads all owners in this respect. In stake events Madden's horses won for him nearly as much as W. C. Whitney's horses did. But Madden pulled off numerous coups during the year that yielded fat bank rolls from the bookies who took liberties with the well-known trainer's entries. City Bank and Pentecost were two of the good things uncorked by Madden; also Gunfire and Yankee. In addition to stakes and bets, Madden made a fortune in selling two-year-olds to different millionaires. While no official announcement was made, it was common talk at the time that Madden received from W. C. Whitney for Yankee and Blue Girl close to $60,000. He sold Reno to Clarence H. Mackay for $32,000 and disposed of others for good prices. All things considered, Madden enjoyed one of the best seasons of his career as a turfman.—New York Sun.

CRESCENT CITY PROSPECTS.

The New Orleans Picayune of November 20, has this to say of the forthcoming meeting there:

"When the Crescent City Jockey Club broke away from the old stereotyped guaranteed value events it was pointed out by people who had the success of the winter meetings in New Orleans at heart, that racing here would take a decided boom. How true these predictions were can easily be realized when one glances over the number of entries that have been made in the different stakes this fall. The twenty-one events which have been opened show an average of sixty-five entries to each. It is not only the quantity, but the quality of the nominations that is pleasing. Entered in the different events are some of the best horses in the west and also a number of good ones from the east. Never before since the present management has had charge of the Fair Grounds, have such a number of really high-class animals been sent here to participate in the winter meeting. With the improvement in the class of the thoroughbreds will also come a more prosperous lot of owners. In years gone by the New Orleans meeting was not seriously considered by the better class of owners. Racing here was viewed from the point of being only a good place to lay off and winter until the meetings up the line opened up. The purses were small and their value did not warrant good animals being shipped here.

"The policy of Mr. Bush and his associates from now on will be a liberal one. It is their intention to try and build up the game so that it will rank with the best in the west. Under the present state of affairs a good horse can earn as much here as on any of the Chicago tracks, with the possible exception of Washington Park. The time is past for an owner to even think of going to the expense of shipping to California. He can do as good right here, and will not have to subject his animals to the long and tedious journey across the continent, with the dangers that a long trip like that threatens.

"The improvements at the Fair Grounds have been about completed. The grand stand has been repainted, the fences whitewashed and a number of new stables erected. The track itself is in excellent shape and everything awaits the tap of the bell on Thursday, November 28.

"Messrs. A. H. & D. H. Morris' stable arrived yesterday from Trainer Walden's farm, at Middleburg, Md. The string numbered fifteen head, and among their number was the fast two-year-old, The Hoyden, one of the best youngsters that showed at the track here last spring. Choice and Fake were also with this lot. Lucius Lyne will be Messrs. Morris' jockey here this winter. Lyne, by the way, was about the best lightweight that was at Latonia. He is a son of Sanford Lyne, the well-known Kentucky breeder. The Morris colors will be seen in most of the principal events, and followers of the all scarlet will do well to pay some attention to these thoroughbreds this winter.

"The special from Cincinnati is due to arrive here this morning. A number of good horses are in this lot, among them several from the stable of Fred Cook, the well-known turfman and bookmaker, who in past years has campaigned his stable on the California tracks.

"A notable thing that strikes one on a visit around the stables at the Fair Grounds is the number of yearlings quartered there. There are probably more here this year than ever before. Most of them are good lookers, too, and bred on fashionable lines. Some have shown fast moves in their trials, and they should furnish some good sport in the early two-year-old events. Colonel Bud Renaud has several in his barn that will bear watching. Among his lot are some home-bred ones, and if looks and conformation count for anything, they should hold their own in any company. Trainer Fessenden has great hopes of a couple, and it is his intention to race them out east if they make good. Besides Renaud's horses Fessenden is training John F. Ford for Messrs. Duffy & Behan, a three-year-old maiden for Rufus Bush and two of his own, Kinmage and a yearling by Loyalist. Kinmage was fired early last spring and turned out. He was only taken up two weeks ago. In his three-year-old form at St. Louis he showed himself to be a high-class racehorse. He ran a mile at the Fair Grounds track in 1:40, and beat some of the best horses in training there. He is sound as ever now and his trainer is very sweet on him."

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Thomas H. Williams, Jr., president of the new California Jockey Club, is about to try an experiment in preparing horses for the track. The well-known horseman is a believer in the theory that horses should not be put on the track until they have reached their maturity. He believes that two-year-olds are neither strong nor wise enough to do themselves justice. Mr. Williams intends buying a number of yearlings and colts and sending them to Oregon. It is his intention to allow the horses to browse on the rich grass and gain strength roaming over the country. He will not permit them to grow wild nor will he have them trained. He will simply have them ridden from time to time for the purpose of accustoming them to the work they will have to do on the track, where, he is confident, they will demonstrate the correctness of his theory.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

"The advance guard of racegoers and turfmen are already beginning to arrive" says the New Orleans Picayune of November 18. "Last night's special from Cincinnati brought in several prominent men in the turf world, among them

Capt. Buck Franklin, trainer of Pink Coat, about the best handicap horse that raced at Chicago last summer; Charles Rowe, of the firm of Rowe & Clarkson; "Doc" Campbell a well known horseman from Boston, and Ed Jasper, Secretary Clark's genial assistant. On the same train were the Daly boys, Larry and Johnny. Both these jockeys are on their way to Frisco. They were accompanied by Maj. Charles Butler, a gentleman well remembered by the soldiers who camped on the Fair grounds a few years back.

"From now on racegoers will arrive in droves. Even now the hotels are well filled and indications point that there will be a larger crowd here this season than ever before.

"The Gene Elrod special left Cincinnati yesterday and is due to arrive here tomorrow morning. This lot comprises fifteen carloads, and among them are the pick of the thoroughbreds that took part in the recent Latonia meeting.

"The following is a list of the stables that will ship from Cincinnati: Liger & Brown, 12 horses; C. E. Rowe, 5; H. Robinson, 6; J. Laird, 8; Ed Richardson, 2; Wood Hoffman, 2; M. C. Lyles, 10; Henry Simons, 8; W. L. Hazelip, 10; Dan Lamasney, 8; R. E. Watkins, 9; U. Z. De Arman, 10; C. C. McCafferty, 6; C. H. Williams, 4; J. B. Brannon, 2; William Weir, 4; William McInerney, 3; John Naylor, 7; George Land, 3; Walter Wells, 4; W. T. Baldwin, 3, and R. Crowhurst, 2."

T. L. Pierce, says a Cincinnati paper, who for several years was head lad in J. S. Curtis' racing stable in England and South Africa, has gone to New Orleans with a string of jumpers. At Latonia he got Mr. Pomeroy and Lot Thomas and schooled them over the jumps at the Kenton county track during last week. He has engaged Pat McGovern, of Chicago, to ride for him in the timber topping events at the Crescent City track this winter. "I think McGovern is one of the best boys that ever straddled a jumper," said Mr. Pierce. "He is as fearless a rider as I ever saw, and I've seen the best of them in England and Ireland. He won the Turf Congress on Bristol at New Orleans last winter, and the ride that he put up was a beauty. Mr. Pomeroy has the making of a good jumper and I expect to win some nice races with him this winter."

*Omitted from entries. Time, 1:18, 23½, 49½, 1:02½, 1:09.
Winner—B. c. by Wawakus—Puritan Lass.
Went to post at 2:00. At post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second easily. Wellesley closed up strongly through the final furlong under good handling and just got up in time to win. Delmarch ran a good race and was best, but lost through a weak finish. Corder II. ran a fairly good race. Bouteous is improving. Death ran his race and had no mishaps. Federalist had a rough trip in the middle of the field all the way. Mayor Gilroy is in bad form.
Scratched—29394 Flaccus, 107; 29393 Tatar, 107; 29437 Rosecourt, 97.
Overweights—Delmarch, 1 pound; Historian, 2.
Wellesley, show, 6 to 5. Delmarch, show, evens. Corder II., show, 7 to 10.

Time, 1:25, 24½, 49½, 1:16, 1:23.
Winner—Br. c. by Wagner—Mattie T.
Went to post at 2:30. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Colonel Bill improved suddenly over the form of his last previous race. Today he displayed a fine turn of speed, coming home alone. Hot closed up strongly in the last furlong and got second place in the last stride. Flying Buttress needs a stronger rider. Shea was of no help to him and he should have been a closer contender. Goldaga was gaining at the end. Justice can do better.
Scratched—29754 Dotlet, 107.
Overweights—Goldaga, 1 pound; Barricade, 1.
Colonel Bill, show, out. Hot, show, 8 to 5. Flying Buttress, show, out.

Time, 4:02.
Winner—Ch. g. by Uncle Jesse—Lena's First.
Went to post at 2:55. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Cousin Jesse was best and gamest when it came down to a drive in the last quarter. He is a consistent gelding and a good clean jumper. Conover performed finely but seemed to find the journey too long. He is a speedy and fine jumper and gained ground at every obstacle. Boisterous was made too much use of in the first part of the race by Heider in endeavoring to race with Conover and tired. Joe Leiter's stirrup broke.
Scratched—Kate Spotswood, 132; Kalorama, 132.
No show betting on first three.

Time, 12, 24½, 50½, 1:17½, 1:46½, 1:52.
Winner—Br. c. by Governor Foraker—Fraulien.
Went to post at 3:22. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second driving. Mynheer made up a big gap and finishing strongly, was going away at the end. Einus displayed speed and ran in much improved form. Curtsey ran well and would have been a keener contender with a stronger ride. Tatar is in good form and went further than usual. He is only a sprinter. Little Daisy was shut out on the turn for home. Marothien seemingly lacked in speed. Surmise did not run up to his work and can do better.
Scratched—29481 Garter Ban, 106.
Overweights—Marothien, 3 pounds; Beggar Lady, 1.
Mynheer, show, 3 to 5. Einus, show, 12 to 1. Curtsey, show, 8 to 5. Marothien, show, out. Surmise, show, 3 to 5.

Time, 13, 24½, 46½, 1:16, 1:29½.
Winner—B. f. by Gold Crest—Faithful, by Longfellow.
Went to post at 3:40. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Rose of May ran a good, game race. She was away poorly at made up a lot of ground, but was out to the last ounce at the end and swerving. Hockey was best today and would have been the winner with a stronger finisher up, although he hung when he got up. Tenagra was weakly ridden and ought to have been closer up. The route was too far for Anak. Goldfinder was the best horse in the race, but needed another work or two.
Scratched—(29508) Mynheer, 110; 29498 Dewey, 95; 29498 Fensoluea, 92; 29363 Batyah, 92; (29158) Joy Maker, 92; 29414 Ice Water, 92; 29506 Hot, 88; 29591 Fencersault, 85.

Time, 13, 26, 51½, 1:17½, 1:44½, 1:51.
Winner—B. g. by Strathmore—Zuhlan.
Went to post at 4:15. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Handicapper was due and ran an extra good race. He showed much speed but tired in the stretch and seemed to be beaten but closed up again in the last hundred yards. O'Connor's ride was a clever one and his finish was all that could be expected. Potente should have won but he was shut off several times and compelled to go around his field in the last furlong. He finished strongly but could not quite get up. Carbuncle appeared like a winner when a furlong from home but tired in the run in. Alfred Vargrave was outrun throughout.

Winner—B. c. by Emperor of Norfolk—Miss Ford.
Went to post at 2:15. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Forkford was best and especially favored by the slow track. He was lucky at the start and had a clear course throughout. Hungarian went well throughout. Torsina was lucky and well handled. The Miller and Koenig did well and were favored by the going. Mrs. Brunell was forced into the mud next to the rail and tired early.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The partnership existing between John Campbell and Budd Doble has been dissolved. The former will now train the Montana Stable for Henry Hammond of Missoula. In this string are Glendenning, Impromptu, Pepper Sauce, Dandy, Cayenne Pepper, Burdock, El Mido and six yearlings. Campbell won forty-five races last year with the horses that he had in training.

Jockey O'Neil and the Daly boys, accompanied by Howell left St. Louis last Sunday night by way of New Orleans for San Francisco. O'Neil will ride for Haggin, the millionaire horse owner, and the others will ride free lance. Troxler was to have gone with the party, but at the last moment, for some unknown reason, decided not to go.

The New York Sun says that J. Howard Lewis has purchased the well-known horses Star Chamber and Valdez for J. E. Widener. Both will be schooled this winter for jumping races. Lewis has gone west to see if he can purchase the crack western three-year-old, Six Shooter, for Widener.

S. S. Howland, president of the Washington Jockey Club, announced last Monday that next fall all of the old stakes which were run off many years ago at Ivy City when Washington was a big racing center will be revived.

J. B. Haggin is setting much store by George Kessler (Salvator—Miss Woodford). He has him ahead of his own sires, Juvenal, Order, Arkle, Kinley Mack, Bathampton and other sires at his Elmendorf stud.

Jockey Lucien Lyne did some good riding at Latonia. He is rated as a very good boy. Light, clever, cool-headed, good hands, pluck of high degree and rare good judgment all around are some of his virtues.

Billy Shannon and Joe Brill will spend a few days at West Baden before going to Hot Springs, where they will spend the winter.

Wonderly, the jockey, who is under contract to J. H. Carr, during the rest of the Bennings meeting will ride for his employer only.

The get of Brutus have been winning a number of races of late at Oakland. Among the successful ones are Gusto, Duckoy and Merops.

AMERICAN SPORTING MANUAL.

The American Sporting Manual of 1901 contains all racing records at large, revised and complete up to the end of 1900; four handicapping systems with directions for their practical application, a table showing how to compute bookmaking percentages, track records of all the recognized tracks of the country, the western and eastern scales of weights, tables showing the comparative speed of tracks, a complete list of pugilistic contests of 1900 of any consequence, trotting and pacing records at all distances and a list of the new 2:15 trotters of 1900. Also a complete record of performances at all styles of billiards.

NOTICE.

DAILY RACING FORM is a publication which is built by its staff from day to day. Its "forms" and the number of its charts are copyrighted. The chart numbers are so arranged that legal identification is easy of proof. The selections and handicap figures attached to entries are arranged on the same basis. The latter come from the work of four experts after the telegraphic receipt of charts and entries. All persons are warned not to use said chart or index numbers, selections or handicap figures.
